MANY PLAY GOLF ON CLOUDCROFT LINKS

Three New Bowling Alleys Installed; Mask Ball Saturday.

Word was received Friday morning over the long distance telephone that the weather has cleared at Cloudcroft, N. M., and that after a few days of recent showers the sun is shining again. So fine was the weather Friday morning that 50 persons were on the golf links, the lawns of which have recently been cut and are in fine shape for play.

Among recent improvements at El Paso's mountain resort is the installation of three new bowling alleys in the pavilion. The old alleys were destroyed in the fire which razed the old casino building early in the season.

A mask ball to be held Saturday night at the resort is attracting many El Pasoans. Among those who will go up are Garnett King and W. V. Sterling, who will spend a few days on the links during the stay.
